

UHS DIVERSITY FORUM for PROSPECTIVE FAMILIES

THE UHS OFFICE OF ADMISSIONS AND FINANCIAL AID and the

UHS FAMILIES MULTICULTURAL COMMITTEE

invite you to our

DIVERSITY FORUM

Wednesday, November 16, 2016, from 5:30-7:30 PM

UHS Library

3065 Jackson Street (between Baker and Lyon)

Julia Russell Eells, Head of School, Tilda Kapuya, Director of Multicultural Education, and current UHS students, faculty, administrators, and parents/guardians will be present to talk about the importance and celebration of diversity and multiculturalism at UHS.

All prospective families are encouraged to attend this one-time session.

RSVP IS REQUIRED

Registration for this event is accessible using your Ravenna-Hub account. A light dinner will be served.

“As a school community, UHS knows that learning about differences in academic background, socioeconomic status, ethnicity, gender, race, religion, and sexual orientation promotes an environment of understanding and appreciation.”
