

David J. Morandi P'24

David graduated from the University of Southern California where he received his BA/BA degrees in International Relations and Art History. He received his Juris Doctor Degree from Santa Clara University School of Law. Following law school, he served as a law clerk to the First Judicial District Court of Nevada and then as a criminal Deputy District Attorney with the Carson City District Attorney's Office. After moving to private practice, he went on to become a shareholder with the firm of Scarpello & Huss, Ltd. and currently operates his own law office where he serves as outside general counsel to regional and international businesses, family offices and charitable foundations. David has served as co-chair for the Hamlin School's successful $74m Capital Campaign and currently serves as President of the UHS Parent Guardian Association. He lives in San Francisco with his wife, Brandi, and daughter, Ava ('24), and enjoys travel, fly fishing, skiing and cheering on the USC Trojans.