

Steve Cheung '88

Steve Cheung '88 is an investor with over 30 years of investing, capital markets and strategic advisory experience. He co-founded Palladia Capital Management, a long / short value-oriented investment fund, and continues to invest and allocate capital through its successor entities in a family office structure. Previously, he was an investment banker at Banc of America Securities in the Technology, Media, and Telecommunications Group, where he advised corporate clients on capital raising and strategic alternatives. He started his career at Soros Real Estate Advisors / Quantum Realty Fund (a real estate private equity fund sponsored by George Soros and the Reichmann Family based in New York), where he was responsible for asset management, financing, and dispositions. Steve holds an MBA from Columbia Business School and a BA from the University of Pennsylvania. Steve grew up in San Francisco and attended UHS ('88) and Stuart Hall for Boys and serves as a board member of Villa Taverna. He and his wife, Angela, live in San Francisco with their two children - James (Stuart Hall) and Caroline (Convent).