

Juliet Ayertey joins us as a Math Instructor this fall. She is a graduate of Kwame Nkrumah University of Science and Technology, where she received a BSc in Actuarial Science. She also graduated from New Mexico Institute of Mining and Technology, where she earned an MSc in Operations Research and Statistics. She sharpened her skills as a graduate teaching assistant in the mathematics department at New Mexico Tech, and has a wealth of experience as a teacher, mentor and youth counselor.

Terrence Brewer is no stranger to UHS, having worked with our jazz groups for the past ten years. But this fall, he will join the UHS faculty as a Music Instructor and 9th grade mentor. An award-winning guitarist, Terrence has over fifteen years of experience as a music educator working with SFJAZZ, San Francisco Public Library, California Jazz Conservatory, and the Stanford Jazz Workshop.

Marcus Caimi will join UHS as a Math Instructor and 9th grade mentor. A graduate of The University of California, Berkeley with a BA in Theoretical Mathematics and a minor in Education, Marcus also went on to earn an EdM through the Teacher Education Program at the Harvard Graduate School of Education.

UHS alumna Bianca Catalan '10 returns to UHS this fall as a Community Engagement Instructor and 9th grade mentor. Since graduating from UHS, Bianca has studied at Studio American Conservatory Theater and St. Mary's College of California. Bianca has spent many years working with communities to bring the arts to children and families in San Francisco and in Missouri. She is an award-winning poet and artist and she is a graduate of The City College of New York where she received a BA in Theater.

In July, Bridget Gleason joined the UHS community as Human Resources Director. Bridget's experience in human resources have been earned over an extensive and varied career serving the human resources, payroll, benefits, and training needs of companies large and small throughout the San Francisco Bay Area. Bridget has a BA from San Francisco State and an MBA in Strategic Leadership from Dominican University of California.

Bayete Henderson will join UHS this fall as a History instructor and 9th grade mentor. Bayete comes to us from Assumption University in Bangkok, Thailand, where she taught a variety of different history classes. Bayete hopes to help nurture more globally minded and socially conscious students. She has a BA in History and an MA in Latin American History from San Francisco State University. She has also completed PhD work in Latin American History at the University of Pittsburgh.

We met Rhett Jaramillo, Reception/Operations Coordinator, this summer when he served as a contract receptionist. Rhett was a general manager at Chipotle before coming to UHS. During the summer, Rhett has been helping with numerous administrative projects on campus. Rhett has a Masters in Music Composition from the San Francisco Conservatory of Music. He grew up in Temecula, CA and has been in San Francisco for 3 years.

Joining UHS as Director of Health, Wellness, and Leadership is Corinne Limback. Corinne has had a vast amount of experience working with youth as both a counselor and teacher. Corinne attended Western University of Health Sciences in Pomona and the University of California Santa Barbara, where she received a BS in Biological Sciences. She has worked with the Huckleberry House in San Francisco, AmeriCorps in Richmond, and has done an extensive amount of training in a variety of aspects concerning youth wellness.

Nate Lundy recently joined the UHS community as our new Director of Admissions. Nate has worked with Bay Area students throughout his entire career and has worked with both college and high school level schools at Chapman University, The Bay School, Aim High, Lick-Wilmerding High School and Live Oak School. Nate graduated from the University of San Francisco with an MA in Organization and Leadership and from the University of California, Irvine with a BA in History.

Kim Mallory has taken a new position with the development office, and Trude Froland joins us as our new Receptionist/Office Coordinator. She comes to UHS with a degree in hospitality management from San Francisco State University and over 15 years of hospitality experience, most recently at The Fairmont Hotel. Trude is married with three children, one of whom is a current Summerbridge student. She is a native of Norway and has been in the US for 24 years.